Team Member One-Pager

A private one-page profile of each person, written by you from conversations, to guide goals, feedback and growth.

How to use it. You write this. Do not ask the person to fill it in. Ask questions in your one-to-ones, write it up afterwards and keep it to yourself. Update it every quarter.

1. The person

Name, role and level

Background
Where they have worked, what they studied, what shaped them

Strengths and craft
What they do best, with an example

Skills to build
Hard and soft, from what you have seen

2. Aspirations

Where they want to be in two to three years
In their words

What they want more of, and less of
Type of work, scope, people, pace

What would make them stay, and what would make them leave

3. How they work

How they like to receive feedback
Written, spoken, straight away, time to think

What energises them, and what drains them

How they work with others

What is going on outside work that I should respect
Only what they have chosen to share
